ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Lora Tanis is one of the foremost pediatric practitioners in the world. She has a passion for caring for infants and chiropractic. She loves what she does and her reputation as an excellent chiropractic pediatrics practitioner has been built on integrity, service and continual learning. A graduate of Palmer College, Dr. Tanis was among the first group of DCs in 1996 to graduate with a Diplomate in Clinical Chiropractic Pediatrics (DICCP). She currently serves as Chair of the ICA Council on Chiropractic Pediatrics and is an instructor for the DICCP program in the US, Canada and Australia/NewZealand. A skilled adjuster, Dr. Tanis believes that practitioners should be educated in more than just technique and that the care DCs provide this special patient population should not only be appropriate but always safe. Her lectures always get high ratings because she is able to correlate the academic/theoretical material to her extensive and unique practice experience of more than 25 years ranging from premature babies to kids with special needs. She enjoys teaching and sharing her knowledge with colleagues. Dr. Tanis has a busy private practice in W. Milford, New Jersey.
